We offer a return to the past, when life was much simpler, a restful, scenic location for relaxation and a remote setting not often found on the coast of Maine. We have five cedar cabins available for rent Memorial Day weekend through September.

Motels & Lodges - Facilities with rooms. Kitchenettes might be available. Meals/Restaurant might or might not be available.

B&Bs - Facilities with 1 or more rooms at which breakfast also is provided.

Inns (that are not B&Bs) - Facilities with rooms at which at least one meal in addition to breakfast is provided.

Cottages and Cabins - Facilities with 1 or more bedrooms usually rented on a weekly basis "during the season" but available for less than a full week for Festival participants. Cooking facilities available; buy your own food. Linens might or might not be furnished.
